'Legends in Concert'

NowFeb. 28, Superstar Theater The long running tribute show Legends in Concert, was brought back for an encore last year. Now, it is back again at Resorts, featuring a live band, dancers, and tributes to Tom Jones, the Temptations, Britney Spears, Whitney Houston and Elvis. The show is on the following schedule: Mon.Wed., 7pm; Thurs., 3 and 7pm; Fri., 9pm and Sun., 7pm. Tickets are $25.

Katie Murdock pays tribute to Britney Spears in a paparazzi-worthy performance. Since joining the Legends In Concert cast in 2005, Murdock has performed all over the country, including appearing on The Ellen DeGeneres Show. The Nate Evans Group brings the audience back to 1960s Motown with soul-stirring renditions of The Temptations' classic hits. Nate Evans is the former lead singer of The Impressions, a band that's in the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

New York-born Jazmine plays Whitney Houston and draws her musical inspiration from her Cuban heritage. Jazmine successfully toured Europe and inked a record deal with a Finnish record label. Steve McCoy began performing Tom Jones songs at the age of 5, and as a part of Legends In Concert since 1991. Perhaps the ultimate compliment of his talent and authenticity is that McCoy won an impersonation contest with the real Tom Jones as a judge.

James Lowry stars in Legends as Elvis. Fans of the long-running show in Atlantic City will remember his outstanding tribute portraying the King. Lowry has worked with Legends throughout the world the past 17 years. From Las Vegas to Atlantic City, Ireland to Australia, James has excited audiences with his loving tribute to his childhood hero.
